A Message from HM Patina

Dear Peasants,

As I prepare to hand over the crown, I have begun to reflect on my past year of royalty, glamour, and vodka tonics.

It has been an amazing year with massive and exciting changes, as well as the soul crushing agonies of defeat.

I am so incredibly proud of this year's Contestants and I wish each of them a wildly successful show!

And a massive THANK YOU to our Hostesses and Friends of the Pageant! Without them tirelessly rowing below deck, tonight would not be possible.

As I begin my 10th year with the Miss Adams Morgan Pageant and I prepare to be tossed on the trash heap of past winners, I am thankful.

I am also collecting the names of every, damn person who stood in my way. Please know that while you are reading this, I am dressed in my stunning, hand beaded evening gown, squatted down in the Hilton's parking garage, slashing those people's tires.

God Save this Queen ... from being arrested.

Queen Patina

About the Pageant

The Miss Adams Morgan Pageant is a Washington, DC institution, hosted by the Dupont Social Club, that showcases the outrageous creativity of amateur drag. Each fall, contestants vie for the title of Miss Adams Morgan in a one-of-a-kind spectacle of fun and fabulousness. And while the evening provides over-the-top entertainment, it also celebrates and supports the local LGBTQ community.

Since 1988, the Dupont Social Club has donated nearly $400,000

from event proceeds to DC-area LGBTQ and HIV/AIDS organizations.
